

To Whom It May Concern,

13/10/22

I would like to request a variation to the DCP for floor area exceeding 80m<sup>2</sup>.

Currently our residence does not have an enclosed lockable garage which is the reason for needing a shed of this size. The shed will be used for storage of general items such as garden tools, household boxes, a motorbike and camper trailer.

Please note that the enclosed section of the shed is only 54m<sup>2</sup> with the rest being a carport of 36m<sup>2</sup> which is to keep our cars out of the weather and protected from the elements.

Thank you

Your sincerely
